

"Seladangs!" screamed the Malays

One of the most dangerous animals on earth—not a live one in captivity. Read how one seladang kept 10 armed men, trained animal hunters, up a tree for a day and a night in Charles Mayer's thrilling adventures in "Up a Tree in the Jungle"—among Other interesting features in June

ASIA
Out today—all news-stands—35c copy
Send $1 with your name and address and receive the next 5 copies
Dept. C, ASIA PUBLISHING COMPANY
627 Lexington Avenue New York

"MR. ROOT" Is One of the Nicest Men I Ever Met.

"Why, Beatrice, he takes as much interest in us as if we were his personal guests. You know, dear, Mr. Root is one of the Assistant Managers. "Dear, the very first day we moved into the Bristol he stopped me in the hall to find out whether we were perfectly comfortable in our room. As soon as he found out that Mother couldn't go out very much, he had a big easy chair sent right up for her. "Not that we needed it very much. The rooms at the Bristol are really furnished just like home—so cozy and comfortable. They're neat as a pin—spacious and very reasonably priced. "Life seems twice as pleasant since we moved into the Bristol. Oh, wouldn't it be great if you could get a room next to mine—and when you come, just ask for either Mr. Root or Mr. Reid, who will be glad to show you through this beautiful hotel." Comfortable rooms, single and in suites, now renting on yearly leases, at moderate rate. Dinner (daily) $1.00. Luncheon 50c. Special Business Men's Luncheon 50c.

"500 Little Homes"
HOTEL BRISTOL
T. ELLIOTT TOLSON, Pres.
129 West 48th St.

AN UNUSUAL OPPORTUNITY FOR A HIGH GRADE RETAIL
SHOE MAN
One of the largest 5th Ave. Specialty Shops in Women's High Grade Ready-to-Wear Apparel with branch stores doing several million per year, wishes to rent out a Shoe Department.
Only those acquainted with high class clientele need write to R 19 Herald, Herald Square.

Floy's Service, Inc.
PLANNED ADVERTISING
116 West 32nd Street, N.Y.C.
BOSTON CLEVELAND SPRINGFIELD

The kind that makes smiles—her happy smiles.
PIRIE MACDONALD
Photographer-of-Men
376 FIFTH AV. COR. 47th ST.

IN a great City such as New York most people are dependent upon the Obituary Columns and Death Notices in their morning newspaper for mortuary news of their friends.
It has always been the custom for The Herald to give special attention to this department. That is why such a great number of New York families have quite naturally become accustomed to turning to it every morning.
Death Notices may be telephoned during the day to Chelsea 4000.
After 10 P. M. telephone Worth 10000.
THE NEW YORK HERALD

$300,000 SITE GIFT OF MRS. J. H. SCHIFF

Park Avenue Land for Offices of the Visiting Nurse Service.

Mrs. Jacob H. Schiff has given $300,000 for the purchase of the property at the southeast corner of Park avenue and Fortieth street to be used as a central administration building for the Visiting Nurse Service under the direction of the Henry Street Settlement. It was announced yesterday. The property was transferred yesterday from the Charles Parsons estate and is intended by Mrs. Schiff as a memorial to her husband, who aided the work of the Visiting Nurse Service from its inception twenty-eight years ago to the time of his death last September.
Besides being used for administrative purposes the building will contain a training school for graduate and undergraduate public health nurses and will have rooms for registrars, statisticians, the preparation of medical supplies, for staff meetings and class room purposes. It will contain a cafeteria, demonstration rooms and will serve as a center for public health service. It is hoped that provision can also be made in the building for the entertainment of distinguished visitors who come to New York from all parts of the world to study the Visiting Nurse Service.
The Henry Street Settlement's Visiting Nurse Service is a world famous movement and is responsible for the public health nurse as now understood. Last year the service trained 214 nurses who care for the sick in their homes. Full or partial payment is accepted from patients and much of the service is given free. The nurses are trained so that in the event of war or an epidemic, they can be immediately mobilized for a sudden emergency. The movement started here has grown so that it has spread over the entire country.
There are at present twenty-two nursing centers in New York city which will operate under the direction of the new central administration building. These centers were manned by a staff of 232 nurses during April. The service is affiliated with Teachers College in the training of its nurses, save in the case of those who receive maternity training, which is given at the Manhattan Maternity Hospital.
The service trains graduate nurses from fourteen different hospitals, and last year they cared for as many patients as were treated at thirteen big city hospitals combined. Miss Anne Goodrich is director of the service, and included on the board of directors are

Paid in Full at Par

During the past three years, there fell due $104,000,000 of mortgages guaranteed by the Bond & Mortgage Guarantee Company which the holders called and which the Company saw paid.
Could the holders of these mortgages during this period have realized without loss the same amount on the sale of any of the stocks or bonds in their boxes?

New takers were found for most of these called mortgages and they took them because they knew that they too would have no losses to charge up when they realized on their principal.

Title Guarantee & Trust Co.
Capital $6,000,000. Surplus $11,000,000.
176 Bway., New York. 175 Remsen St., Bklyn.

John G. Agar, Henry Bruers, Mrs. Max Morgenthau, Jr., Leo Arntstein, Charles C. Burlingham, Paul Cravath, L. Emmet Holt, Herbert Lehman, V. Everett Macy, Felix M. Warburg, Miss Alice Lowman and Miss Lillian M. Wald. The transfer of the property was handled by Max Morgenthau, Jr., and William S. Puerst.
John Moskoff, 40, of Valhalla, died yesterday in Grasslands Hospital in East View from a beating ten days ago. The police claim that Michael Gallone, who, Moskoff told Coroner Robert Johns, killed and maimed him, is a former prisoner of Sing Sing and he served time for felonious assault. Gallone is held by the police on a manslaughter charge.

Beating Proves Fatal.

Dr. Hugh L. Russell, the Buffalo osteopath who testified at the last hearing in the third hearing of the Poughkeepsie Trust Company Building, Main and Market streets, Poughkeepsie. Rumors concerning the installation of dictaphones, which have been current in Poughkeepsie for several days, caused Mr. Gleason to put a guard outside his office door yesterday.

Mr. Gleason suggested Poughkeepsie as the place for the third hearing chiefly because he suffers from insomnia and prefers to stay close to home and also because the Bar Association suggested to the opposing lawyers that they meet some place other than the association's building.

Dr. Russell, the Buffalo osteopath who testified at the last hearing in the third hearing of the Poughkeepsie Trust Company Building, Main and Market streets, Poughkeepsie. Rumors concerning the installation of dictaphones, which have been current in Poughkeepsie for several days, caused Mr. Gleason to put a guard outside his office door yesterday.

Mr. Gleason suggested Poughkeepsie as the place for the third hearing chiefly because he suffers from insomnia and prefers to stay close to home and also because the Bar Association suggested to the opposing lawyers that they meet some place other than the association's building.

Dr. Russell, the Buffalo osteopath who testified at the last hearing in the third hearing of the Poughkeepsie Trust Company Building, Main and Market streets, Poughkeepsie. Rumors concerning the installation of dictaphones, which have been current in Poughkeepsie for several days, caused Mr. Gleason to put a guard outside his office door yesterday.

Mr. Gleason suggested Poughkeepsie as the place for the third hearing chiefly because he suffers from insomnia and prefers to stay close to home and also because the Bar Association suggested to the opposing lawyers that they meet some place other than the association's building.

Dr. Russell, the Buffalo osteopath who testified at the last hearing in the third hearing of the Poughkeepsie Trust Company Building, Main and Market streets, Poughkeepsie. Rumors concerning the installation of dictaphones, which have been current in Poughkeepsie for several days, caused Mr. Gleason to put a guard outside his office door yesterday.

Mr. Gleason suggested Poughkeepsie as the place for the third hearing chiefly because he suffers from insomnia and prefers to stay close to home and also because the Bar Association suggested to the opposing lawyers that they meet some place other than the association's building.

Dr. Russell, the Buffalo osteopath who testified at the last hearing in the third hearing of the Poughkeepsie Trust Company Building, Main and Market streets, Poughkeepsie. Rumors concerning the installation of dictaphones, which have been current in Poughkeepsie for several days, caused Mr. Gleason to put a guard outside his office door yesterday.

Mr. Gleason suggested Poughkeepsie as the place for the third hearing chiefly because he suffers from insomnia and prefers to stay close to home and also because the Bar Association suggested to the opposing lawyers that they meet some place other than the association's building.

Dr. Russell, the Buffalo osteopath who testified at the last hearing in the third hearing of the Poughkeepsie Trust Company Building, Main and Market streets, Poughkeepsie. Rumors concerning the installation of dictaphones, which have been current in Poughkeepsie for several days, caused Mr. Gleason to put a guard outside his office door yesterday.

Mr. Gleason suggested Poughkeepsie as the place for the third hearing chiefly because he suffers from insomnia and prefers to stay close to home and also because the Bar Association suggested to the opposing lawyers that they meet some place other than the association's building.

Dr. Russell, the Buffalo osteopath who testified at the last hearing in the third hearing of the Poughkeepsie Trust Company Building, Main and Market streets, Poughkeepsie. Rumors concerning the installation of dictaphones, which have been current in Poughkeepsie for several days, caused Mr. Gleason to put a guard outside his office door yesterday.

Mr. Gleason suggested Poughkeepsie as the place for the third hearing chiefly because he suffers from insomnia and prefers to stay close to home and also because the Bar Association suggested to the opposing lawyers that they meet some place other than the association's building.

Dr. Russell, the Buffalo osteopath who testified at the last hearing in the third hearing of the Poughkeepsie Trust Company Building, Main and Market streets, Poughkeepsie. Rumors concerning the installation of dictaphones, which have been current in Poughkeepsie for several days, caused Mr. Gleason to put a guard outside his office door yesterday.

Mr. Gleason suggested Poughkeepsie as the place for the third hearing chiefly because he suffers from insomnia and prefers to stay close to home and also because the Bar Association suggested to the opposing lawyers that they meet some place other than the association's building.

Dr. Russell, the Buffalo osteopath who testified at the last hearing in the third hearing of the Poughkeepsie Trust Company Building, Main and Market streets, Poughkeepsie. Rumors concerning the installation of dictaphones, which have been current in Poughkeepsie for several days, caused Mr. Gleason to put a guard outside his office door yesterday.

Mr. Gleason suggested Poughkeepsie as the place for the third hearing chiefly because he suffers from insomnia and prefers to stay close to home and also because the Bar Association suggested to the opposing lawyers that they meet some place other than the association's building.

Dr. Russell, the Buffalo osteopath who testified at the last hearing in the third hearing of the Poughkeepsie Trust Company Building, Main and Market streets, Poughkeepsie. Rumors concerning the installation of dictaphones, which have been current in Poughkeepsie for several days, caused Mr. Gleason to put a guard outside his office door yesterday.

Mr. Gleason suggested Poughkeepsie as the place for the third hearing chiefly because he suffers from insomnia and prefers to stay close to home and also because the Bar Association suggested to the opposing lawyers that they meet some place other than the association's building.

Dr. Russell, the Buffalo osteopath who testified at the last hearing in the third hearing of the Poughkeepsie Trust Company Building, Main and Market streets, Poughkeepsie. Rumors concerning the installation of dictaphones, which have been current in Poughkeepsie for several days, caused Mr. Gleason to put a guard outside his office door yesterday.

Mr. Gleason suggested Poughkeepsie as the place for the third hearing chiefly because he suffers from insomnia and prefers to stay close to home and also because the Bar Association suggested to the opposing lawyers that they meet some place other than the association's building.

Dr. Russell, the Buffalo osteopath who testified at the last hearing in the third hearing of the Poughkeepsie Trust Company Building, Main and Market streets, Poughkeepsie. Rumors concerning the installation of dictaphones, which have been current in Poughkeepsie for several days, caused Mr. Gleason to put a guard outside his office door yesterday.

Mr. Gleason suggested Poughkeepsie as the place for the third hearing chiefly because he suffers from insomnia and prefers to stay close to home and also because the Bar Association suggested to the opposing lawyers that they meet some place other than the association's building.

Dr. Russell, the Buffalo osteopath who testified at the last hearing in the third hearing of the Poughkeepsie Trust Company Building, Main and Market streets, Poughkeepsie. Rumors concerning the installation of dictaphones, which have been current in Poughkeepsie for several days, caused Mr. Gleason to put a guard outside his office door yesterday.

Mr. Gleason suggested Poughkeepsie as the place for the third hearing chiefly because he suffers from insomnia and prefers to stay close to home and also because the Bar Association suggested to the opposing lawyers that they meet some place other than the association's building.

Dr. Russell, the Buffalo osteopath who testified at the last hearing in the third hearing of the Poughkeepsie Trust Company Building, Main and Market streets, Poughkeepsie. Rumors concerning the installation of dictaphones, which have been current in Poughkeepsie for several days, caused Mr. Gleason to put a guard outside his office door yesterday.

Mr. Gleason suggested Poughkeepsie as the place for the third hearing chiefly because he suffers from insomnia and prefers to stay close to home and also because the Bar Association suggested to the opposing lawyers that they meet some place other than the association's building.

Dr. Russell, the Buffalo osteopath who testified at the last hearing in the third hearing of the Poughkeepsie Trust Company Building, Main and Market streets, Poughkeepsie. Rumors concerning the installation of dictaphones, which have been current in Poughkeepsie for several days, caused Mr. Gleason to put a guard outside his office door yesterday.

Mr. Gleason suggested Poughkeepsie as the place for the third hearing chiefly because he suffers from insomnia and prefers to stay close to home and also because the Bar Association suggested to the opposing lawyers that they meet some place other than the association's building.

Dr. Russell, the Buffalo osteopath who testified at the last hearing in the third hearing of the Poughkeepsie Trust Company Building, Main and Market streets, Poughkeepsie. Rumors concerning the installation of dictaphones, which have been current in Poughkeepsie for several days, caused Mr. Gleason to put a guard outside his office door yesterday.

Mr. Gleason suggested Poughkeepsie as the place for the third hearing chiefly because he suffers from insomnia and prefers to stay close to home and also because the Bar Association suggested to the opposing lawyers that they meet some place other than the association's building.

Dr. Russell, the Buffalo osteopath who testified at the last hearing in the third hearing of the Poughkeepsie Trust Company Building, Main and Market streets, Poughkeepsie. Rumors concerning the installation of dictaphones, which have been current in Poughkeepsie for several days, caused Mr. Gleason to put a guard outside his office door yesterday.

Mr. Gleason suggested Poughkeepsie as the place for the third hearing chiefly because he suffers from insomnia and prefers to stay close to home and also because the Bar Association suggested to the opposing lawyers that they meet some place other than the association's building.

Dr. Russell, the Buffalo osteopath who testified at the last hearing in the third hearing of the Poughkeepsie Trust Company Building, Main and Market streets, Poughkeepsie. Rumors concerning the installation of dictaphones, which have been current in Poughkeepsie for several days, caused Mr. Gleason to put a guard outside his office door yesterday.

Mr. Gleason suggested Poughkeepsie as the place for the third hearing chiefly because he suffers from insomnia and prefers to stay close to home and also because the Bar Association suggested to the opposing lawyers that they meet some place other than the association's building.

Dr. Russell, the Buffalo osteopath who testified at the last hearing in the third hearing of the Poughkeepsie Trust Company Building, Main and Market streets, Poughkeepsie. Rumors concerning the installation of dictaphones, which have been current in Poughkeepsie for several days, caused Mr. Gleason to put a guard outside his office door yesterday.

Mr. Gleason suggested Poughkeepsie as the place for the third hearing chiefly because he suffers from insomnia and prefers to stay close to home and also because the Bar Association suggested to the opposing lawyers that they meet some place other than the association's building.

Dr. Russell, the Buffalo osteopath who testified at the last hearing in the third hearing of the Poughkeepsie Trust Company Building, Main and Market streets, Poughkeepsie. Rumors concerning the installation of dictaphones, which have been current in Poughkeepsie for several days, caused Mr. Gleason to put a guard outside his office door yesterday.

Mr. Gleason suggested Poughkeepsie as the place for the third hearing chiefly because he suffers from insomnia and prefers to stay close to home and also because the Bar Association suggested to the opposing lawyers that they meet some place other than the association's building.

Dr. Russell, the Buffalo osteopath who testified at the last hearing in the third hearing of the Poughkeepsie Trust Company Building, Main and Market streets, Poughkeepsie. Rumors concerning the installation of dictaphones, which have been current in Poughkeepsie for several days, caused Mr. Gleason to put a guard outside his office door yesterday.

Mr. Gleason suggested Poughkeepsie as the place for the third hearing chiefly because he suffers from insomnia and prefers to stay close to home and also because the Bar Association suggested to the opposing lawyers that they meet some place other than the association's building.

Dr. Russell, the Buffalo osteopath who testified at the last hearing in the third hearing of the Poughkeepsie Trust Company Building, Main and Market streets, Poughkeepsie. Rumors concerning the installation of dictaphones, which have been current in Poughkeepsie for several days, caused Mr. Gleason to put a guard outside his office door yesterday.

Mr. Gleason suggested Poughkeepsie as the place for the third hearing chiefly because he suffers from insomnia and prefers to stay close to home and also because the Bar Association suggested to the opposing lawyers that they meet some place other than the association's building.

Dr. Russell, the Buffalo osteopath who testified at the last hearing in the third hearing of the Poughkeepsie Trust Company Building, Main and Market streets, Poughkeepsie. Rumors concerning the installation of dictaphones, which have been current in Poughkeepsie for several days, caused Mr. Gleason to put a guard outside his office door yesterday.

Mr. Gleason suggested Poughkeepsie as the place for the third hearing chiefly because he suffers from insomnia and prefers to stay close to home and also because the Bar Association suggested to the opposing lawyers that they meet some place other than the association's building.

Dr. Russell, the Buffalo osteopath who testified at the last hearing in the third hearing of the Poughkeepsie Trust Company Building, Main and Market streets, Poughkeepsie. Rumors concerning the installation of dictaphones, which have been current in Poughkeepsie for several days, caused Mr. Gleason to put a guard outside his office door yesterday.

Mr. Gleason suggested Poughkeepsie as the place for the third hearing chiefly because he suffers from insomnia and prefers to stay close to home and also because the Bar Association suggested to the opposing lawyers that they meet some place other than the association's building.

Dr. Russell, the Buffalo osteopath who testified at the last hearing in the third hearing of the Poughkeepsie Trust Company Building, Main and Market streets, Poughkeepsie. Rumors concerning the installation of dictaphones, which have been current in Poughkeepsie for several days, caused Mr. Gleason to put a guard outside his office door yesterday.

Mr. Gleason suggested Poughkeepsie as the place for the third hearing chiefly because he suffers from insomnia and prefers to stay close to home and also because the Bar Association suggested to the opposing lawyers that they meet some place other than the association's building.

Dr. Russell, the Buffalo osteopath who testified at the last hearing in the third hearing of the Poughkeepsie Trust Company Building, Main and Market streets, Poughkeepsie. Rumors concerning the installation of dictaphones, which have been current in Poughkeepsie for several days, caused Mr. Gleason to put a guard outside his office door yesterday.

Mr. Gleason suggested Poughkeepsie as the place for the third hearing chiefly because he suffers from insomnia and prefers to stay close to home and also because the Bar Association suggested to the opposing lawyers that they meet some place other than the association's building.

Dr. Russell, the Buffalo osteopath who testified at the last hearing in the third hearing of the Poughkeepsie Trust Company Building, Main and Market streets, Poughkeepsie. Rumors concerning the installation of dictaphones, which have been current in Poughkeepsie for several days, caused Mr. Gleason to put a guard outside his office door yesterday.

Mr. Gleason suggested Poughkeepsie as the place for the third hearing chiefly because he suffers from insomnia and prefers to stay close to home and also because the Bar Association suggested to the opposing lawyers that they meet some place other than the association's building.

Dr. Russell, the Buffalo osteopath who testified at the last hearing in the third hearing of the Poughkeepsie Trust Company Building, Main and Market streets, Poughkeepsie. Rumors concerning the installation of dictaphones, which have been current in Poughkeepsie for several days, caused Mr. Gleason to put a guard outside his office door yesterday.

Mr. Gleason suggested Poughkeepsie as the place for the third hearing chiefly because he suffers from insomnia and prefers to stay close to home and also because the Bar Association suggested to the opposing lawyers that they meet some place other than the association's building.

Dr. Russell, the Buffalo osteopath who testified at the last hearing in the third hearing of the Poughkeepsie Trust Company Building, Main and Market streets, Poughkeepsie. Rumors concerning the installation of dictaphones, which have been current in Poughkeepsie for several days, caused Mr. Gleason to put a guard outside his office door yesterday.

Mr. Gleason suggested Poughkeepsie as the place for the third hearing chiefly because he suffers from insomnia and prefers to stay close to home and also because the Bar Association suggested to the opposing lawyers that they meet some place other than the association's building.

Dr. Russell, the Buffalo osteopath who testified at the last hearing in the third hearing of the Poughkeepsie Trust Company Building, Main and Market streets, Poughkeepsie. Rumors concerning the installation of dictaphones, which have been current in Poughkeepsie for several days, caused Mr. Gleason to put a guard outside his office door yesterday.

Mr. Gleason suggested Poughkeepsie as the place for the third hearing chiefly because he suffers from insomnia and prefers to stay close to home and also because the Bar Association suggested to the opposing lawyers that they meet some place other than the association's building.

Dr. Russell, the Buffalo osteopath who testified at the last hearing in the third hearing of the Poughkeepsie Trust Company Building, Main and Market streets, Poughkeepsie. Rumors concerning the installation of dictaphones, which have been current in Poughkeepsie for several days, caused Mr. Gleason to put a guard outside his office door yesterday.

Mr. Gleason suggested Poughkeepsie as the place for the third hearing chiefly because he suffers from insomnia and prefers to stay close to home and also because the Bar Association suggested to the opposing lawyers that they meet some place other than the association's building.

Dr. Russell, the Buffalo osteopath who testified at the last hearing in the third hearing of the Poughkeepsie Trust Company Building, Main and Market streets, Poughkeepsie. Rumors concerning the installation of dictaphones, which have been current in Poughkeepsie for several days, caused Mr. Gleason to put a guard outside his office door yesterday.

Mr. Gleason suggested Poughkeepsie as the place for the third hearing chiefly because he suffers from insomnia and prefers to stay close to home and also because the Bar Association suggested to the opposing lawyers that they meet some place other than the association's building.

Dr. Russell, the Buffalo osteopath who testified at the last hearing in the third hearing of the Poughkeepsie Trust Company Building, Main and Market streets, Poughkeepsie. Rumors concerning the installation of dictaphones, which have been current in Poughkeepsie for several days, caused Mr. Gleason to put a guard outside his office door yesterday.

Mr. Gleason suggested Poughkeepsie as the place for the third hearing chiefly because he suffers from insomnia and prefers to stay close to home and also because the Bar Association suggested to the opposing lawyers that they meet some place other than the association's building.

Dr. Russell, the Buffalo osteopath who testified at the last hearing in the third hearing of the Poughkeepsie Trust Company Building, Main and Market streets, Poughkeepsie. Rumors concerning the installation of dictaphones, which have been current in Poughkeepsie for several days, caused Mr. Gleason to put a guard outside his office door yesterday.

Mr. Gleason suggested Poughkeepsie as the place for the third hearing chiefly because he suffers from insomnia and prefers to stay close to home and also because the Bar Association suggested to the opposing lawyers that they meet some place other than the association's building.

Dr. Russell, the Buffalo osteopath who testified at the last hearing in the third hearing of the Poughkeepsie Trust Company Building, Main and Market streets, Poughkeepsie. Rumors concerning the installation of dictaphones, which have been current in Poughkeepsie for several days, caused Mr. Gleason to put a guard outside his office door yesterday.

DICTAPHONE SCARE IN STILLMAN CASE

Guard Placed at Office of Surrogate Gleason to Prevent Leaks in Testimony.

The Bar Association Building having failed to provide the secrecy desired in the James A. Stillman divorce action, the third hearing in the suit, which is scheduled for May 25 and 26, will be held in the library of Daniel J. Gleason, Surrogate of Dutchess county, and, therefore, on the top floor of the Poughkeepsie Trust Company Building, Main and Market streets, Poughkeepsie. Rumors concerning the installation of dictaphones, which have been current in Poughkeepsie for several days, caused Mr. Gleason to put a guard outside his office door yesterday.

Mr. Gleason suggested Poughkeepsie as the place for the third hearing chiefly because he suffers from insomnia and prefers to stay close to home and also because the Bar Association suggested to the opposing lawyers that they meet some place other than the association's building.

Dr. Russell, the Buffalo osteopath who testified at the last hearing in the third hearing of the Poughkeepsie Trust Company Building, Main and Market streets, Poughkeepsie. Rumors concerning the installation of dictaphones, which have been current in Poughkeepsie for several days, caused Mr. Gleason to put a guard outside his office door yesterday.

Mr. Gleason suggested Poughkeepsie as the place for the third hearing chiefly because he suffers from insomnia and prefers to stay close to home and also because the Bar Association suggested to the opposing lawyers that they meet some place other than the association's building.

Dr. Russell, the Buffalo osteopath who testified at the last hearing in the third hearing of the Poughkeepsie Trust Company Building, Main and Market streets, Poughkeepsie. Rumors concerning the installation of dictaphones, which have been current in Poughkeepsie for several days, caused Mr. Gleason to put a guard outside his office door yesterday.

Mr. Gleason suggested Poughkeepsie as the place for the third hearing chiefly because he suffers from insomnia and prefers to stay close to home and also because the Bar Association suggested to the opposing lawyers that they meet some place other than the association's building.

Dr. Russell, the Buffalo osteopath who testified at the last hearing in the third hearing of the Poughkeepsie Trust Company Building, Main and Market streets, Poughkeepsie. Rumors concerning the installation of dictaphones, which have been current in Poughkeepsie for several days, caused Mr. Gleason to put a guard outside his office door yesterday.

Mr. Gleason suggested Poughkeepsie as the place for the third hearing chiefly because he suffers from insomnia and prefers to stay close to home and also because the Bar Association suggested to the opposing lawyers that they meet some place other than the association's building.

Dr. Russell, the Buffalo osteopath who testified at the last hearing in the third hearing of the Poughkeepsie Trust Company Building, Main and Market streets, Poughkeepsie. Rumors concerning the installation of dictaphones, which have been current in Poughkeepsie for several days, caused Mr. Gleason to put a guard outside his office door yesterday.

Mr. Gleason suggested Poughkeepsie as the place for the third hearing chiefly because he suffers from insomnia and prefers to stay close to home and also because the Bar Association suggested to the opposing lawyers that they meet some place other than the association's building.

Dr. Russell, the Buffalo osteopath who testified at the last hearing in the third hearing of the Poughkeepsie Trust Company Building, Main and Market streets, Poughkeepsie. Rumors concerning the installation of dictaphones, which have been current in Poughkeepsie for several days, caused Mr. Gleason to put a guard outside his office door yesterday.

Mr. Gleason suggested Poughkeepsie as the place for the third hearing chiefly because he suffers from insomnia and prefers to stay close to home and also because the Bar Association suggested to the opposing lawyers that they meet some place other than the association's building.

Dr. Russell, the Buffalo osteopath who testified at the last hearing in the third hearing of the Poughkeepsie Trust Company Building, Main and Market streets, Poughkeepsie. Rumors concerning the installation of dictaphones, which have been current in Poughkeepsie for several days, caused Mr. Gleason to put a guard outside his office door yesterday.

Mr. Gleason suggested Poughkeepsie as the place for the third hearing chiefly because he suffers from insomnia and prefers to stay close to home and also because the Bar Association suggested to the opposing lawyers that they meet some place other than the association's building.

Dr. Russell, the Buffalo osteopath who testified at the last hearing in the third hearing of the Poughkeepsie Trust Company Building, Main and Market streets, Poughkeepsie. Rumors concerning the installation of dictaphones, which have been current in Poughkeepsie for several days, caused Mr. Gleason to put a guard outside his office door yesterday.

Mr. Gleason suggested Poughkeepsie as the place for the third hearing chiefly because he suffers from insomnia and prefers to stay close to home and also because the Bar Association suggested to the opposing lawyers that they meet some place other than the association's building.

Dr. Russell, the Buffalo osteopath who testified at the last hearing in the third hearing of the Poughkeepsie Trust Company Building, Main and Market streets, Poughkeepsie. Rumors concerning the installation of dictaphones, which have been current in Poughkeepsie for several days, caused Mr. Gleason to put a guard outside his office door yesterday.

Mr. Gleason suggested Poughkeepsie as the place for the third hearing chiefly because he suffers from insomnia and prefers to stay close to home and also because the Bar Association suggested to the opposing lawyers that they meet some place other than the association's building.

Dr. Russell, the Buffalo osteopath who testified at the last hearing in the third hearing of the Poughkeepsie Trust Company Building, Main and Market streets, Poughkeepsie. Rumors concerning the installation of dictaphones, which have been current in Poughkeepsie for several days, caused Mr. Gleason to put a guard outside his office door yesterday.

Mr. Gleason suggested Poughkeepsie as the place for the third hearing chiefly because he suffers from insomnia and prefers to stay close to home and also because the Bar Association suggested to the opposing lawyers that they meet some place other than the association's building.

Dr. Russell, the Buffalo osteopath who testified at the last hearing in the third hearing of the Poughkeepsie Trust Company Building, Main and Market streets, Poughkeepsie. Rumors concerning the installation of dictaphones, which have been current in Poughkeepsie for several days, caused Mr. Gleason to put a guard outside his office door yesterday.

Mr. Gleason suggested Poughkeepsie as the place for the third hearing chiefly because he suffers from insomnia and prefers to stay close to home and also because the Bar Association suggested to the opposing lawyers that they meet some place other than the association's building.

Dr. Russell, the Buffalo osteopath who testified at the last hearing in the third hearing of the Poughkeepsie Trust Company Building, Main and Market streets, Poughkeepsie. Rumors concerning the installation of dictaphones, which have been current in Poughkeepsie for several days, caused Mr. Gleason to put a guard outside his office door yesterday.

Mr. Gleason suggested Poughkeepsie as the place for the third hearing chiefly because he suffers from insomnia and prefers to stay close to home and also because the Bar Association suggested to the opposing lawyers that they meet some place other than the association's building.

Dr. Russell, the Buffalo osteopath who testified at the last hearing in the third hearing of the Poughkeepsie Trust Company Building, Main and Market streets, Poughkeepsie. Rumors concerning the installation of dictaphones, which have been current in Poughkeepsie for several days, caused Mr. Gleason to put a guard outside his office door yesterday.

Mr. Gleason suggested Poughkeepsie as the place for the third hearing chiefly because he suffers from insomnia and prefers to stay close to home and also because the Bar Association suggested to the opposing lawyers that they meet some place other than the association's building.

Dr. Russell, the Buffalo osteopath who testified at the last hearing in the third hearing of the Poughkeepsie Trust Company Building, Main and Market streets, Poughkeepsie. Rumors concerning the installation of dictaphones, which have been current in Poughkeepsie for several days, caused Mr. Gleason to put a guard outside his office door yesterday.

Mr. Gleason suggested Poughkeepsie as the place for the third hearing chiefly because he suffers from insomnia and prefers to stay close to home and also because the Bar Association suggested to the opposing lawyers that they meet some place other than the association's building.

HUSBAND AND WIFE BATTLE ON A TRAIN

Mrs. Janice Auerbach Accuses Him of Taking $3,000 From Her Stocking.

Mrs. Janice Auerbach of 151 South 122d street, Rockaway Park, who said she was the common law wife of Nathan Auerbach of 4 West 11th street, picked a New York Central train last night as the appropriate place to stage a fist fight with her husband over the possession of $3,000 which she said was purloined from her stocking a few nights ago by him for the purpose of aiding his flight to California. The couple were put off the train at 125th street and turned over to the police.

Mrs. Auerbach told the police her husband kicked her in the stomach. Auerbach replied that he did nothing of the sort, and besides, she had punched his face. Both were charged with disorderly conduct, but when arraigned before Magistrate Ten Eyck in Night Court they said they wanted to withdraw the countercharges and were discharged. They left the courtroom together.

Mrs. Auerbach said she came here from Indiana, met Auerbach and opened a woman's ready to wear shop at 745 Sixth avenue. She advanced $30,000 to her husband, she asserted, for the purchase of property at 749 and 751 Sixth avenue. He failed, she declared, to carry out the purchase, and when her store was robbed March 9 she decided it was about time